

KEYSTONE.

A big surprise was given Miss Viola Sapp, Tuesday evening, when thirty of her Los Angeles friends came out from the city. Punch was served during the dancing hours, followed by strawberries, ice cream and numerous kinds of cake. All reported that they had had the time of their lives.

E. M. Searle of Los Angeles, was in Torrance Friday, looking over his real estate interest. He owns a frontage on Carson Boulevard.

If you know an honest man or woman when you meet one, if you know a good book when you read one, if you know a good picture when you see one, if you know good music when you hear it—you're educated.—A. L. Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morrow of Andro Avenue, have purchased a grocery business at 232 American Avenue, Long Beach. The business is located in the "Producers' Market."

Charles Lutes and Mr. and Mrs. William Westbury of Caney, Kansas, are in Long Beach in regard to the building of the new glass factory. Mr. and Mrs. Westbury were entertained at dinner Tuesday night by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morrow of Andro Avenue.

Gifts suitable for all ages and all occasions in the art and novelty line. Also the best in picture frames and framing, done to order much cheaper than city prices. M. & M. Photo & Art Studio, 945 Palm Ave., Gardena.—Adv.-tf.

W. E. B. Partridge, J. A. Heffeburger of Los Angeles, J. N. Day of Redondo, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clark and son Harwood, Torrance, and Mrs. L. Short, Long Beach, motored to Ventura Friday night on a week-end fishing trip. A very enjoyable trip was reported by all, with 93 speckled beauties to their credit. Mrs. L. Short of Long Beach, was the guest of Mrs. F. H. Clark during the Fiesta.

--- It Pays.

When a duck lays an egg she just waddles off as if nothing had happened. When a hen lays an egg there is a whale of a noise; hence the demand for hens' eggs. It pays to advertise.

What's In a Name?

"Doctor, if there is anything the matter with me don't frighten me half to death by giving it a long scientific name. Just tell me what it is in plain English."

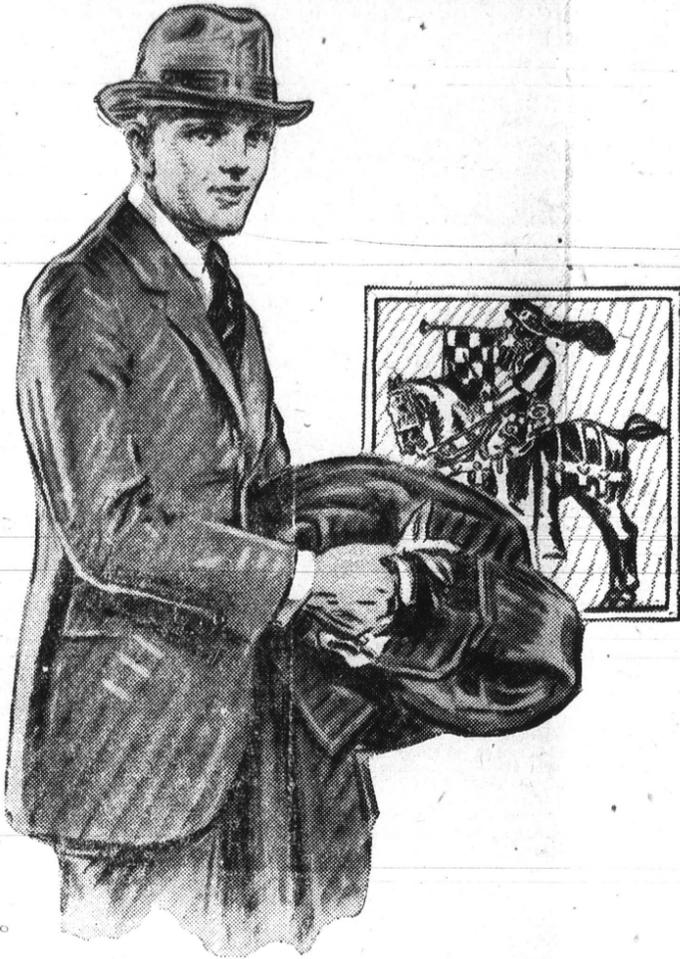

"Well, sir, to be frank, you are lazy."

"Thank you, doctor. Now tell me the scientific name for it. I've got to report to the missus."

We also recall that there wasn't so much meanness in the world when all we used gasoline for was to clean clothes.

Two things touch the average Torrance man's heart—the photograph of an old sweetheart and a dime found in an old pair of pants.
